

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of contributors	5
Foreword
Mark SIEGLER, M.D.....	11
Loved ones' role in end of life care: evaluating deontological and utilitarian ethical arguments
Pierre LE COZ, Professor of philosophy, Faculty of Medicine, Marseille (EA 3783), Former Vice-chair of the Comité Consultatif d'Éthique (French National Consultative Ethics Committee)	15
The individual nature of death
David LE BRETON, Professor of Sociology, University of Strasbourg, Member of the Institut Universitaire de France, Member of the Cultures and sociétés in Europe URA-CNRS laboratory	27
The dying person and the triangle of loved ones: for a relational approach to the end of life
Irène THERY, Director of studies at EHESS.....	35
A physician's view on the complexity of end of life care and the role of family and close friends
Jean-Marc LA PIANA, Medical director, La Maison La Gardanne, Palliative care center, Marseille (France).....	55
Family and loved ones in end of life care in French law: does end of life shape and define the "family"?
Francis KERNALEGUEN, Professor, the University of Rennes I, France (IODE-CRJO Centre de Droit privé, UMR CNRS 6262).....	63

The central role in Germany of the “Angehörige” in enhancing patient autonomy at the end of life Françoise FURKEL, Emeritus Professor, at the French-German Legal Center University of the Sarre, Germany	79
The preeminence of relationships in the legal recognition of the rights of the patient’s loved ones in Switzerland Dominique MANAI, Professor, Faculty of Law, Geneva University, Switzerland.....	101
End-of-life medical treatment: a limited role for loved ones to enhance patient autonomy Thérèse CALLUS, Senior Lecturer in Law, University of Reading, United Kingdom.....	119
A role for loved ones to promote patient autonomy at the end of life Geneviève SCHAMPS, Professor, Université Catholique de Louvain (Belgium) Director of the Centre for Medical and Biomedical Law	133
The broad definition of “relatives” in end of life care in Spain Verónica SAN JULIAN, Professor of Civil Law, Law School, University of Navarre, Spain.....	167
The central power of physicians over end of life matters in Italy Silvia BRANDANI, Lecturer, Law school, Siena University, Gianluca NAVONE, Lecturer, Law school, Siena University.....	185
Patient rights at the end of life and the role of family and loved ones in Greek law Penelope AGALLOPOULOU, Emeritus Professor, University of Piraeus, Greece	199
Ethical and legal debates on a dignified end-of-life and the role of the family in Hungary Judit SÁNDOR, Professor of Law, Central European University, Budapest, Hungary.....	211

Loved ones and end-of-life medical care: the particular approach of Tunisian law Amel AOUIJ-MRAD, Professor, Faculty of Law and Political Science, University of Tunis (Tunisia)	221
Family, “loved ones” and medicalized end-of-life decision making in Senegal Mamadou BADJI, Professor, University Cheikh Anta Diop de Dakar (Senegal)	233
Multiculturalism and religion in end-of-life care in Lebanon Dina EL MAOULA, Lecturer, French-speaking Section of the Faculty of Law, Lebanese University	247
Loved ones and end-of-life medical care in Turkish law Saibe OKTAY-OZDEMIR, Professor, Faculty of law, civil law and contract law Section, University of Istanbul, Turkey Basak BAYSAL, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Civil Law and Contract Law Section, University of Istanbul, Turkey.....	257
End-of-life medical care: towards recognition of patient autonomy in Brazil Maria-Claudia CRESPO-BRAUNER, Professor, Federal university of Rio grande – Furg and the University of Caxias do Sul – UCS (Brazil), Professor, Federal University of Rio Grande-Furg (Brazil)	273
“Loved ones” and end-of-life medical treatment in Chile Carmen DOMINGUEZ, Professor of civil law, Director of the Centre for the Family at the Pontifical Catholic University of Chile (Chile).....	287
Surrogate decision-making role in end of life care: the case of the USA Kristina ORFALI, Associate Professor of Bioethics, Columbia University.....	297
The family and end-of-life medical treatment in Japan Ryuichi IDA, Distinguished Visiting Professor, Graduate School of Global Studies, Doshisha University (Japan).....	313

Families and end-of-life treatment decisions: an international study
Brigitte FEUILLET-LIGER, Professor, Faculty of Law,
University of Rennes I, Member of the Institut Universitaire de France, Director of the Centre de Recherche Juridique de l'Ouest (IODE, UMR CNRS n° 6262) 317